

What next?

Supporting disabled young people through transition to adult life

Tuesday 11th May 2010

Dryden Centre, Low Fell, Gateshead

9:30am – 12:30pm

Improving pathways to employment, further education and training

- Hear from disabled young people about what matters to them
- Take part in action planning to transform strategies to reality

1:00pm - 4:30pm (drop in anytime)

Information market-place

- Pick up a copy of Gateshead's new Transition Resource Pack
- Get information from service providers and support agencies on further education, employment, leisure and more...

Lunch
at 12:30

To book your FREE place, telephone Lucy Peart on 0191 433 5145, email: lucypeart@gateshead.gov.uk or return
the form overleaf by Friday 30th April 2010

Who should attend?

- People working with disabled young people
- Families with disabled young people
- Senior managers from across services
- Elected members

Booking form

I will be attending the following parts of this event (please tick ✓):

- Improving pathways to employment, further education & training workshop (9:30-12:30pm)
- Buffet lunch (12:30pm)
- Information market place: (1:00-4:30pm)
- I will be bringing information about my organisation or group to share at the market place or
- I will just drop in anytime between 1:00-4:30pm

Name:
Organisation:
Address:
Phone:
E-mail:
Special requirements:

Please return to: Lucy Peart, Aiming High for Disabled Children, Tyne View Centre, Rose Street, Gateshead NE8 2LS or fax to: 0191 433 5162